CHRISTMAS IN THE HEART....

Christmas! 'Tis the season for kindling the fire of hospitality in the hall, the genial fire of charity in the heart.

—Washington Irving

A Message

from the

Pastor

Dear Sacred Heart Parish family,

The joy of Christmas bursts once again from the hopefulness of Advent. As we read of the great joy of the Birth of the Savior, we are embraced and encouraged in our Christian life within the parish and within our family homes. Once again this year, it is my joy to wish you dear parishioners at Sacred Heart the peace and good things of the Lord in your life.

Christmas is an invitation to remember the ever-faithful presence of the Father in the life, death and resurrection of Christ. By the action of the Spirit all of us are blessed with life and breath. We are able to see and encounter the Christ in the brothers and sisters of our human family. The liturgy offers us the colors, sounds, and ritual of God's actions in our lives. Hopefully, the Christmas liturgies will intensify and celebrate this already joyful season.

Christmas allows us to remember the year of grace just passed. Thank you for your presence in our worshipping and praying community. We continue to be blessed with believers who discover the Lord in our worship on the weekends (Sundays) and other feasts throughout the year. As a community we have been blessed with many, many baptisms, confirmations, and First Communions. As a community we have welcomed the spectrum of God-with-us from the joys of brides and grooms to the tears of people saying good-bye to their beloved dead.

We are thankful for our children in both our English and Spanish speaking religious education programs. They are life and hope. Thanks to the catechists and parents who have shared the faith with the children and young people.

We are richly blessed in our life and mission. Thanks to those of you who faithfully support the ministry with your contributions. We are blessed in your gifts to the parish and to the others needs especially our school.

Christmas is traditionally a time of giving. Please remember your parish as you plan your Christmas gifts. In the past, we have asked you to consider a specific amount for a gift to the parish. I prefer to leave that to your own conscience this year. Please remember however, that the Christmas collection is one of the main sources of our parish revenue. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

A most blessed and joyful Christmas from the Fathers Victor Cruz, Herbert Meyr, Peter Kunnalakatt, our deacons and the Staff at Sacred Heart Parish. The Lord's continued blessings and peace with you and your families.

Fr. Victor Miranda

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will fix a place for my people. I will plant them so that they may dwell in their place without further disturbance (2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16).

Psalm — For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 89).

Second Reading — To the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be glory forever and ever (Romans 16:25-27).

Gospel — Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word (Luke 1:26-38).

GOD'S PROMISE

The lengthy passage from Samuel is a wonderful exposition of God's promise to the house of David: that his throne would forever be gloriously occupied by his descendants. Hidden in the mystery of the prophecy is the promise of the Savior, the Messiah, Son of God and Son of David. The prophet Nathan, speaking in God's name, poetically turns around David's plan to build a house for God, and announces God's plan to build a "house," that is, a dynasty for David. From this house of David will come the Messiah, the Christ, not in kingly splendor as David ruled, but as a humble man, destined to rule forever and over all. When God gives a gift, it's amazing what we are given—so different from what we ever could have imagined.

Bendita eres
entre las mujeres

DOMINGO IV DE ADVIENTO

- La visita del ángel a María evoca las visitas de Dios a varias mujeres del Antiguo Testamento: Sara, madre de Isaac (Gn 18,9-15), Ana, madre de Samuel (1 Sam 1,9-18), la madre de Sansón (Jueces 13,2-5). A todas ellas fue anunciado el nacimiento de un hijo con una misión importante en la realización del plan de Dios.

- La narración empieza con una expresión "En el sexto mes". Es el sexto mes de embarazo para Isabel. La necesidad concreta de Isabel, una mujer ya avanzada en edad que va a tener a su primer hijo, con un parto a riesgo, es el telón de fondo de todo este episodio. Y ella lo menciona al comienzo (Lc 1,26) y al final de la visita del ángel (Lc 1,36.39).

- El ángel le dice: "¡Alégrate!, ¡Llena de gracia! ¡El Señor está contigo!" Palabras similares fueron dichas a Moisés (Ex 3,12), a Jeremías (Jr 1,8), a Jedeón (Jz 6,12) y a otras personas con una misión importante en el plan de Dios. María se queda extrañada ante este saludo, y tratar de saber el significado de aquellas palabras. Es realista. Quiere entender. No acepta cualquier inspiración.

- El ángel responde: "¡No temas, María!" Como en la visita del ángel a Zacarías, el ángel recuerda aquí que el primer saludo de Dios es siempre: "¡No temas!" Luego el ángel recuerda las promesas del pasado que se cumplirán mediante el hijo que va a nacer y que debe recibir el nombre de Jesús. Será llamado Hijo del Altísimo y en él se realizará el Reino de Dios. Esta es la explicación del ángel para que María no tenga miedo.

- María tiene conciencia de la misión que está recibiendo, pero sigue siendo realista. No se deja embalar por la grandeza de la oferta y mira su condición. Analiza la oferta a partir de los criterios que tiene a su disposición. Humanamente hablando, no es posible: "¡Cómo podré ser madre si no tengo relación con ningún hombre?"

- El ángel explica que el Espíritu Santo, presente en la Palabra de Dios desde el día de la Creación (Génesis 1,2), consigue realizar cosas que parecen imposibles. Por esto, el Santo que va a nacer de María será llamado Hijo de Dios. El milagro se repite hoy. Cuando la Palabra de Dios es acogida por los pobres, algo nuevo acontece por el poder del Espíritu Santo. Algo tan nuevo y sorprendente como que un hijo va a nacer de una virgen o un hijo va a nacer de una mujer ya entrada en edad como Isabel, de la que todos decían que ¡no podía tener hijos! Y el ángel añade: "¡Ahí tienes a tu parienta, Isabel: se encuentra ya en el sexto mes del embarazo!"

- La respuesta del ángel aclara todo para María, y ella se entrega: "¡He aquí la sierva del Señor! Hágase en mí según su Palabra". María usa para sí el título de Sierva, sirvienta del Señor. Este título viene de Isaías, que presenta la misión del pueblo no como un privilegio, sino como un servicio a los otros pueblos (Is 42,1-9; 49,3-6). Más tarde, Jesús definirá también su misión como un servicio: "No vine para ser servido, sino para servir" (Mt 20,28). ¡Aprendió de su Madre!

INFORMACION GENERAL: Continuemos en oración por nuestro Pastor Fr Víctor Miranda. Vengan a participar de las celebraciones marianas en Diciembre: Posadas todos los días (Diciembre 15 a 23) a las 7:00 P.M en el sótano de la Iglesia. "Do not be afraid, Mary" -Luke 1:30

It can be a little scary to do as God asks— to give Him the first fruits of our time, talent and treasure. But the comforting words the angel spoke to Mary can comfort us, too, when we dedicate ourselves to being good Christian stewards- "Do not be afraid."
