Reflections for the Week...

I am sure by now that most of us know the drill for the Annual Catholic Appeal. It may seem a little “patronizing,” but apparently it does work. Please do your fair share to help the larger Catholic Church in the Chicago area and all the good it does! We have to do it again next Sunday, but we’ll try to move it along. May God bless all of our efforts!

If you look at our three shrine areas of church, you will notice the newly restored coin boxes, complete with chain fasteners. We have the “old” matching set in front and a new “used one” at the Our Lady of Charity of Cobre Shrine at the rear. It took quite a bit of work to get it all restored. We thank everyone who helped, including the Melrose Park Police.

Talking about the Vigil Light Stands; any comments about the sand filled container for the lighting sticks? Good, Bad, Don’t Care???

Another question about the status of things! Would anybody be badly affected if we moved up the time of the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, on the First Thursday, to 12 noon? Please let me know. It would make a better time situation for the Parish Staff Meeting, which we are starting on the First Thursday of the month.

The Holy Name guys have said that our ticket sales for the “Corned Beef Horse Races” could be better! Please spread the word and invite guys for a fun evening before Lent, on Feb. 12th, from 6:30pm to 1am. Tickets at $30. That’s cheaper than an outing to Wrigley Field to see the Cubs break more hearts or to Soldier Field to see the Bears lose in the COOOLD!!!

Last Sunday we had a Sacred Heart School student make a “Thank You” statement as the last announcement at every Mass. But at the 12:30pm Mass Florina Carillo, from 5th Grade, got overlooked! We cannot have that! So Florina gets her chance to be heard today! Sorry, Florina!

Next Weekend our parish bulletins will contain a special insert about Sacred Heart School. It will be in English and Spanish. We ask everyone to read it and give it serious consideration. The weekend following; Feb. 20th, 2 people from our school PTO or School Advisory Board will be in the church lobbies to pass out more information and answer questions. These are important days for our school. Please reflect, consider and pray!

Enough for today...
Fr. Friedl

P.S. Lent looms! What are the three pillars of Lent?

PREACHING THE GOSPEL

John, the only other evangelist to recount the story of the miraculous catch of fishes, places the story after the resurrection of Christ from the dead, not at the beginning of his ministry, as Luke does here. Unlike Matthew and Mark, who write that the disciples immediately follow Jesus at his summons, Luke seems to know that his listeners will comprehend the call to discipleship better if it follows a miraculous sign. But whether it’s Luke describing the beginning of the disciples following Jesus in mission, or John’s depiction of the risen Christ preparing his followers for the mission facing them after his return to the Father, the point is the same—and remains the same for us today. Paul expresses it best. It does not matter who preaches the gospel, or where or when, but only that it is, through the grace of God in us, preached and believed.

GOD IS CALLING

When God calls you to preach that gospel, what will be your response? Do you feel you have what it takes to love and serve? God knows your gifts and your goodness, even where the only things you may see are your faults. Despite these flaws, or perhaps even because of them, God wants you just as you are, just as God called Isaiah, Paul, and Peter. God assured and strengthened them in spite of their fears. Even as Paul said, “I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle” (1 Corinthians 15:9). Even as the psalmist said, “When I called, you answered me; you built up strength within me” (Psalm 138:3). Remember, Peter finally said, “At your command I will lower the nets” (Luke 5:5).

Today’s readings offer a clarion call to each of us to live the vocation to which God has called us. Through our baptism, we have been invited to live out God’s vibrant love each day, making some hard choices as we go along. Today’s readings offer food for the journey as we try and try again to leave everything and follow Jesus.

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'"

- Isaiah 6:8

Every day – in little ways and in big ways – God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry or just someone to open a door for an overburdened stranger, God constantly looks to see if we are willing to respond with the eagerness that Isaiah showed when he answered, "Here I am, send me!"

MESSAGE FROM CARDINAL GEORGE.....

Annual Catholic Appeal 2010

"...they left everything and followed Him." Luke 5:11

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

While each day I pray for you and your families, I am glad to be able to speak to you now. Across this year in various ways—through the Festival of Faith, the Catholics Come Home initiative, and Catholic Schools Week—we have been rediscovering what it means to follow Jesus Christ in the Catholic Church. The Word of God leads us more deeply into this mystery of our calling to follow Jesus in His Church.

Saint Luke speaks of the time when Jesus was calling His first followers. It ends with these powerful words: they left everything and followed Him. Jesus called His earliest community of disciples to accompany Him. They had to put aside not only their plans and commitments to others, but also their own discouragement and their fear. They even had to let go of their own sense of unworthiness, as the prophet Isaiah and the apostle Paul did. These earliest disciples heard Jesus' invitation to share in His mission: from now on you will be catching men. They heard the call, and they said Yes: they left everything and followed Him. Imagine now the power of Jesus' call, the force of His personality and His words. What they had to give up to leave was, perhaps, not much by our standards, but nonetheless it was everything to them.

Seeing the little community of disciples who walked with Jesus, who followed Him, we recognize the seed of the Church, the very same Church of which we are a part two thousand years later. The disciples hear the words of Jesus, and so do we. They receive from Jesus the Bread of Life, and so do we. They are sent in mission to be His witnesses, and so are we. Centered on Jesus and bonded by His word, by the sacraments, and by His mission, these earliest disciples and we ourselves make up the Church, the Body of Christ.

This year, in the Archdiocese of Chicago, we have had the graced opportunity to rediscover how we belong to the Body of Christ and also to deepen our sense of apostolic mission, of being sent by Christ. We have done so in three different ways: by welcoming, by serving, and by supporting. The events and the energy surrounding the Festival of Faith, Catholics Come Home, Catholic Schools Week, and now the Annual Catholic Appeal have given us a focus for our discipleship.

First of all, we welcome. We welcome everyone who hears Jesus' call to follow Him and wants do so. We welcome those who seek a conversion of heart and want to live holy lives. We welcome those who have for whatever reason drifted from our family of faith and want to come home. We welcome all who search for God.

Secondly, we serve. We serve the deepest needs of men and women and children. We nourish faith through our Catholic schools and programs of religious education. We serve the poor, the unborn, and the vulnerable in our city and suburbs and even beyond. We serve the poorest of the poor in other countries through the Catholic Relief Services. We serve the spiritual needs of people by maintaining the structures and buildings and churches that provide a spiritual home for everyone who hears Christ's call and wishes to come and pray and follow Him.

Thirdly, we support. We support our brothers and sisters and our children in the community of Christ's disciples. We support them in practical ways, we support them with our prayers, we support them with the work of our hands, and we support them with our financial offerings. We have known the gifts of God in our life, beginning with God's call and love given generously to each one of us. And God's generosity to us prompts us to support those in need and to support the Church herself, for she connects us to Christ and has been a rich source of blessing for us and so many others.

Dear friends, the Annual Catholic Appeal calls you and me to live out our discipleship by making a generous financial gift that will enable the Church to continue to welcome, to serve, and to support all people in the name of Jesus Christ.

The words of Saint Luke should echo in our minds and hearts: they left everything and followed Him. This is a disquieting challenge. Everything? What the call means is that finally we prefer nothing to Christ Jesus. Jesus can make this call because He is God and loves us with a love so great that it commands our trust. Everything. We, too, have heard His call and together in His Church we strive to follow Him and to continue His mission in the world.

The people of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago are a great blessing to me as they make discipleship and mission a reality in our time and in our circumstances. Above all, I am grateful for the action of God's grace in your lives. I am also grateful now for your willingness to be a part of this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. May God bless you and keep you. Thank you.

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

Campaña Católica Anual 2010

Abandonaron todo

Esta semana se le pedirá a usted que lea el folleto de la Campaña Católica Anual que recibirá junto con el boletín. El tema de la Campaña es: "...abandonaron todo y lo siguieron". (Lucas 5:11)

Los Apóstoles abandonaron todo para seguir a Jesús. A usted no se le pide hacer lo mismo. Más bien, se le pide que esta semana use algo de su tiempo para reflexionar sobre la Campaña Católica Anual, la cual financia un número importante de ministerios arquidiocesanos y es también la fuente filantrópica más grande de apoyo financiero para TODAS las escuelas católicas de la Arquidiócesis.

Por favor recuerde que la Campaña Católica Anual es muy diferente a una colecta especial que se realiza una sola vez. Se trata más bien de una campaña de promesas de donativos en la que usted puede hacer un donativo pagadero a cinco meses.

Mientras revisa la lista de trabajos que son posibles gracias a su aportación a la Campaña Católica Anual, reflexione en las bendiciones que ha recibido del Señor. Él le ha dado todo lo que usted tiene. Realice su donativo para nuestra parroquia, la Arquidiócesis y las actividades de la Iglesia en todo el mundo en agradecimiento por todos los dones que Dios le ha dado.

En ocasiones es difícil imaginar cómo puede ayudar su donativo a una organización del tamaño de nuestra Arquidiócesis, cómo puede marcar una diferencia. Sin embargo cada donativo marca una diferencia, porque todas las parroquias participan en la Campaña y las aportaciones de muchos permiten que la Arquidiócesis ofrezca los ministerios y servicios necesarios.

La suma de los donativos no sólo representa nuestra gratitud a Dios, con ellos se financia una parte significativa de las actividades de la Arquidiócesis. Una vez que nuestra parroquia alcance la meta de $17,548.32 en efectivo que nos hemos fijado, el 100% de los fondos adicionales que recabemos regresará a nuestra parroquia para ayudarnos a financiar nuestras necesidades.

Si usted recibió por correo la forma para realizar su promesa de donativo, por favor llénela y envíela de regreso o tráigala a misa el siguiente fin de semana. Para aquellos que no recibieron esta información por correo o no han tenido tiempo de contestarla, hemos diseñado un proceso de promesa de donativos en las bancas que se llevará a cabo en todas las misas del siguiente fin de semana.
