In the good old summertime...

A bunch of things are breaking down and need repair or replacement. As most people have noticed, our sound system needs some work to stop it from fading in and out. We have a good man to work on it and hopefully we will see some progress in a couple of weeks. The air conditioner in the cry room is blowing warm air. It's warm enough in there! Hopefully it only needs to be fed some freon, but it is pretty old and may have given up on life! The old ice box (I still call them that) on the north side of the Marian Hall kitchen has also given up the ghost. It has been there a long time and now has a freezer motor that stalls, grinds and no longer freezes. Electric motors that stall and grind are likely to burn so I cut the cord to keep it unplugged. Mary our housekeeper says that our "old rectory" washer and dryer are also going the way of all flesh and machinery! And finally, we have a new "to do list" from our diocesan school safety inspector before we open up in the late summer. I tell you this list of "maladies" not for sympathy but to let you know that we are on the job. What would help us if for everyone to keep praying and to put any leftover summer vacation funds into the parish envelope!

*****

We have a pretty clear idea on most people's Sunday morning Mass preferences. We will prepare a ballot accordingly for a vote by Confirmed parishioners in August. One person, one vote! We especially hope that the people who attend the affected Masses (7:30am, 9am, and 11am) will vote! How does August 15th sound? The Feast of the Assumption of Mary. Hopefully she will intercede for us. Let us know. Results will be in the bulletin.

*****

Our missing tabernacle key has mysteriously reappeared! We thank the Lord and the returner.

*****

At this writing Fr. Cos Militello appears to be in a very bad way. Let us hope and pray for the best. Fr. Meyr on the other hand appears to be mending. Let us pray for recovery.

*****

On the positive side, recently a good tuck-pointing crew did a repair job on the church and convent chimneys, convent wall, church bell tower and other areas. They found some more spots in need for next year. But for now, everything will hold together!

Definitely enough,
Fr. Friedl

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME BARGAINING WITH GOD

In the first reading from Genesis today, we hear one of the most protracted deal-making scenes between a human and God in all of the Bible. It was this sort of courageous standing toe-to-toe with the Almighty that helped earn Abraham the reputation of being a fearlessly faithful man, one who lived his end of the covenant and, in deep, trusting faith, would call upon the Lord to live up to the other end. Other ancient religions had accounts of mortals bartering with the divine, but for a mere man to whittle down the divinity's requirements, to stay the wrathful hand of the heavens for the sake of a handful of the innocent, was new and remarkable. Abraham began the trajectory that would find a pinnacle in Christ on the cross, where his own "faith in the power of God" (Colossians 2:12) would lead him not to care how many innocent there were, but to offer himself as a sacrifice so that all might be forgiven their transgressions and allowed to live in life eternal.

STRIKING A SCARY DEAL

In teaching his disciples how to pray, Jesus gives them the benefit of the doubt: "Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us" (Luke 11:4). It is not too difficult to imagine Jesus looking around at his followers rather pointedly as he says this, eyebrows arched, perhaps emphasizing the word "everyone" as he spoke. This, when truly prayed, is a scary invitation (or challenge) to God: forgive us in the same way and to the same degree that we forgive others. Perhaps we count on the Almighty to live up to the forgiveness end of the bargain even when we fail to; we, therefore, don't really seem to believe the fact that God can reserve the right to say "OK" to this invitation at any time, and make us bear the consequences. A good barometer of whether or not we're truly sincere in our invitation might be whether or not we break out in a cold sweat when we pray it. Can we always count on God to be merciful and forgiving? Yes. Can we always count on God to honor every agreement God enters into? Again, yes.

From a parishioner's desk:

Sunday's gospel a couple weeks ago was the parable of the Good Samaritan. It taught us a lesson in kindness- to be kind to our neighbor. Who is our neighbor? The answer- anyone we come in contact with. That made me think about a wonderful little boy who sat next to me on the plane recently. He was going to visit his mother. Obviously, his parents were separated. I asked him his name. He answered, "David." He said he was ten years old and that he loves to fly. He hoped to join the United States Air Force when "he grew up." We shared a little more conversation and soon the flight attendant announced "fasten all seat belts as we will be landing soon." After fastening his own belt, he looked to make sure mine was also fastened. Then he reached in his pocket and brought out a pack of gum. At that he said to me "sometimes you get a bad earache or headache from the pressure in the plane. Would you like some gum? It helps get rid of the pain." I took a stick of gum, then David said to me, "sometimes I need two sticks- you better take another stick." Imagine the thoughtfulness of this ten year old boy. I remember a line from Scriptures "a child shall lead them."

As we came closer to the runway, we were given the time in that particular city. It was an hour ahead of Chicago time. David changed his watch, then said to me, "you have to change your watch. Do you want me to do it for you?" Isn't that what the gospel was all about- looking after the needs of others even though we may not know them. This little boy had put into action, not just words, what "love thy neighbor" truly means. I will never see David again, but I will never forget him. I can only pray that someday "when he grows up" he'll be wearing the uniform of an United States Airman. God bless David and all our neighbors.

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

- Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask Him, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that in our culture we often confuse what we really need with what we simply want. We need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

CLOTHING DRIVE

We will have our monthly clothing drive next weekend, August 7/8. It is held the first weekend of each month. Clothes will be taken to Catholic Charities for distribution to the needy. Let's continue our efforts to help those in need of clothing.

REGATEO CON DIOS

En nuestra primera lectura de hoy, tomada del libro del Génesis, escuchamos una de las escenas de regateo más largas de toda la Biblia, entre Dios y un ser humano. Fue esa clase de osadía –la de atreverse a regatear con el Todopoderoso– lo que le ganó a Abraham la reputación de ser un hombre de una fidelidad sin miedo, un hombre que cumplió fielmente su parte de la alianza y que, con fe y confianza ilimitadas, le exigió al Señor que también cumpliera la suya. Se dan ejemplos en otras religiones de la antigüedad de seres mortales que se atrevían a regatear con sus dioses. Pero el que un mero hombre se pusiera a rebajar poco a poco las exigencias de su Dios y a frenar la mano airada del Señor por causa de unos pocos inocentes –eso era algo nuevo e insólito. Con Abraham comenzó una trayectoria que había de culminar en Cristo crucificado, cuya fe en el poder de Dios (véase Colosenses 2:12) lo llevaría a no pensar en cuántos inocentes habría o no habría, sino a ofrecerse en sacrificio para que a todos los culpables se les perdonaran sus crímenes y pudieran entrar en la vida eterna.

UN TRATO ESCALOFRIANTE

Cuando Jesús enseñó a sus discípulos a rezar, les dio una frase que nos debe asustar bastante: “Perdónanos nuestros pecados, porque también nosotros perdonamos a todo el que nos ofende” (Lucas 11:4). No es difícil imaginar a Jesús mirando a su alrededor con una mirada penetrante a cada uno de ellos mientras dice esas palabras, tal vez arqueando las cejas y recalcando la frase “a todo el que nos ofende”. Esto es un trato escalofriante, pues estamos invitando a Dios (o tal vez retándolo ...) a que nos perdone de la misma manera y en el mismo grado que nosotros perdonamos a los demás. Tal vez contamos con que el Señor cumplirá su parte del trato y nos perdonará, aun si nosotros no cumplimos la parte nuestra. Parece, por lo tanto, que no creemos del todo que Dios puede reservarse el derecho de aceptar nuestra invitación y dejarnos sufrir las consecuencias. Un buen barómetro para medir nuestra sinceridad al hacer esta invitación a Dios, podría ser el ver si estas palabras producen escalofríos en nosotros al pronunciarlas. ¿Podemos contar con que Dios siempre es misericordioso y perdona? ¡Sí! ¿Podemos asimismo contar con que Dios cumple todos sus tratos? Pues, ¡también, sí!
