Misery loves company...

We are not alone. A lot of people in our area are even worse off. But it is sad to look down into our rectory basement and see the stripped walls, the ruined appliances and the general mess. Our parish staff had done such a good job setting everything up so nicely and now it is all a mess. But life goes on. The offices are upstairs. Work is being done and people are being served. It is going to take us some time to recover and some unexpected expenses! Please keep that in mind in your Sunday offerings!

*****

This Sunday we did our voting on the Sunday morning Mass schedule proposals. I hope everyone got a word. Between a missed bulletin and a couple of forgotten pulpit announcements it came up suddenly. Let's see what happens. We will publish the results next week.

*****

Our school is starting up again as is our CCD Religious Education Program. Please spread the word for both! We want to bring as many young people to Christ and His Church as possible.

*****

Today we celebrate the Assumption of Mary into heaven. It is a rather natural follow-up to the Ascension of Christ. Both of these events remind us that our lasting home is not here. We are passing through here on the way to our real home with the Lord. It is a day to remember those who have gone before us with a sense of hope! May they all be in their real home, including Fr. "Cos".

*****

P.S. Next week we will try to put some photos in our bulletin to show everyone the mess made by the flood.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time FAMILY VALUED?

Listening to Jesus describe the divided households that would result from following him is somewhat startling in our society, where the Christian church is seen as one of the last great refuges of the family. And yet we know that in many ways religion still divides families, when one spouse is observant and another is not, when children choose or reject the beliefs of their parents, when lifestyles of a loved one do not conform to Church teachings, when a marriage or remarriage occurs outside of the sanctuary, when a non-believing yet baptized child merely goes through the religious motions to satisfy a grandparent . . . the list goes on. Centuries ago, Jesus knew that deeply held and honestly followed religious convictions could often be a source of division, in spite of the fact that what he and his Father in heaven wanted most deeply was unity.

TYPICAL TEENAGER

In the days when Luke's Gospel was written, Christianity was in its adolescence. In its infancy it was a branch or sect of Judaism. Ongoing dissension within the Jewish faith about the nature of Jesus and his messianic role created a rift. Social and political situations aggravated by the destruction of the Jerusalem temple deepened it. Luke was preaching and writing to many people who, day by day, were living through the kinds of household divisions that Jesus was describing. Anyone who has lived through a child's teenage years knows that "son against father, daughter against mother" is a common situation. It was no different for Christianity as it wrested itself away from its parent religion. The followers of Christ in Luke's day were learning that sometimes a household divided was the price paid, in the words of the Letter to the Hebrews, for keeping their eyes "fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith" (Hebrews 12:2).

Today's Readings: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10; Psalm 20:2-4, 18; Hebrews 12:1-4; Luke 12:49-53

The Dominican Literacy Center is in great need of women volunteers for its 2010-2011 session, which begins in September.

This program offers tutoring in speaking and reading of English to women in the Melrose Park area. It is unique in that it offers tutoring on a one-to-one basis (one student with one teacher).

A time commitment of one and one-half hours a week is all that is necessary. Classes are held at the Dominican Literacy Center, which is located at 1503 Rice St. (in Sacred Heart Parish, in Melrose Park).

Four consecutive and informative training sessions will be held on the evenings of Aug. 23 (Monday), Aug. 25 (Wednesday), Aug. 31 (Tuesday), and Sept. 2 (Thursday). Each training session (held at the Dominican Literacy Center) will begin at 6:30pm. Participants need to attend ALL four sessions.

To volunteer, or to find out more about the program, please call: Sr. Judith Curran or Sr. Marlene Kirbach at 708-338-0659 (office/answering machine).

"Drinking the New Wine"
A Retreat for Men

Please join us for a two-day retreat with Fr. Tom Borkowski. Jesus gave us new wine to put into new wineskins. Have we savored this new wine, or has it been lost to us? The wineskins are as significant as the wine itself...a truth that is often overlooked. This transformative influence of this new wine and wineskins are as radical for us as contemporary Christian men as they were 2,000 years ago.

Retreat Information

Presenter: Fr. Tom Borkowski

When: September 17-19, 2010

Retreat Location: The Well, LaGrange, IL
